JEC FORUM BANGKOK TO RETURN IN 2021

With the coronavirus pandemic currently affecting the whole world, and the global health crisis that is ensuing, leading to longer lockdowns and reinforced travel restrictions throughout the world make it impossible for JEC Group to hold the JEC Forum Bangkok from July 1st to 3rd, 2020 but will return in 2021.

Out of concern for the health and safety of their exhibitors, visitors, partners, and staff — and in line with recent lockdowns measures and travel limitations all over the world and in the ASEAN region in particular — JEC Group will not hold JEC Forum Bangkok in 2020.

JEC FORUM BANGKOK WILL BE BACK ON IN 2021

The 5th edition of JEC Forum Bangkok will take place in July 2021. A not to be missed event, this 2021 edition is expected to rally the whole of the ASEAN composites community, with over 200 members participating in a spirit of business, innovation, and networking. JEC Forum Bangkok's program will include a set of business conference sessions, pre-arranged Business Meetings with key industry players from the entire composites value-chain of the ASEAN region. And for a full day, participants will take part in a composite tour of the cutting-edge composites apparatus in Thailand. More details and takeaways about the program will be available soon.
